

Contract for Success

"The quality of a person's life is in direct proportion to their commitment to excellence, regardless of their chosen field of endeavor."

-Vince Lombardi

Instructions: Start your high school career out with a firm commitment to academic success. Put it in writing and refer to it on days that you need a reminder to strive for academic excellence.

Student Statement:
I , (name), am committed to my goal of achieving academic excellen the entirety of my high school career.	ce throughout
 I will achieve excellence by: Completing all of my assignments, projects, and tasks to the best of my ability and in a timely man Asking for assistance if I need help Challenging myself to tackle difficult subjects and complex assignments with confidence Participating in classroom discussions Contributing to a positive academic environment by encouraging my classmates to do the same Doing the hard work necessary to prepare for the next adventure in my academic career 	ner
If I prepare and if I work hard, I WILL get into the college of my choice!
Student's Signature:
Date:
Parent Statement:
I, (name), am committed to helping my student achieve academic success by providing a support system that is encouraging and goal-oriented.
Parent's Signature:
Data	