

Why College?

Americans with four-year college degrees made 98 percent more an hour on average in 2013 than people without a degree. ("Is College Worth It, Clearly New Data Say" – The New York Times, May, 2014)

Congratulations on making the commitment to prepare yourself for college! The trail to college acceptance is challenging and requires planning, preparation, and practice. The first step is to identify your motivation for achieving the goal of college acceptance and to create a plan to do so.

List 3 reasons why you want to	o go to college
1
2
List 3 careers that you might c	onsider which require a college degree
1
2
3
In addition to good grades (a on your applications for college	high G.P.A.), list 3 accomplishments that you want to be able to	includ
,
l
2
3
List three steps that you will ta	ke this year to get started on the trail to becoming "college rea	dy"
1
2
3
Student's Signature:	Parent's Signature:	